Downlands College is a Catholic coeducational day and boarding school for Years 8 - 12. The College is situated on 38 hectares in the midst of Toowoomba, Students at Downlands enjoy modern, fully equipped facilities along with progressive and engaging teaching which results in consistently high levels of academic success, balanced with a variety of extra curricular opportunities.

Each cubicle has a fluorescent reading light, built in desk and chair, power and lockable cupboard.

Shower cubicles with privacy stalls.

The communal area (left and below) allows you to come together and enjoy each others company or watch a little television. There is also a kitchenette in this area if you would like to make a cup of tea or coffee.

The substantial grounds offer students areas of peace and quiet or opportunities to interact through sport or leisure.
