

Article I. STUDY TIME

Study time is a quiet period when you work in your room, in a computer room or with a tutor. Study time gives you a quiet time, free of distraction, to complete homework or learning assignments, review new schoolwork, revise previous learning, or undertake research or reading.

Monday to Thursday

Sunday

Year 8 & 9	7.30 pm to 8.30 pm
Year 10	7.30 pm to 9.00 pm
Year 11 & 12	7.00 pm to 9.00 pm*
	* 9.45 pm to 10.45 pm weekdays if required

Year 11 and 12 students requiring additional study time should approach Supervisors prior to study finishing.

Section 1.01 Expectations:

- Unless otherwise authorised by a Supervisor, you are expected to study quietly in your own room with your door open.
- You are expected to be prepared with all necessary equipment, i.e. diary, pens, pencils, erasers, rulers, books, drinks, etc., before study time begins.
- To work in a computer room you need to book computer time for research and assignment completion with the Supervisors no later than 7.00 pm. Computer time is allocated in 30 minute blocks and you need to comply with the conditions of use on display in the computer room.
- If you have no set work, or are unable to organise appropriate reading material, then a Supervisor will give you a reading/learning assignment.
- You can use earphones to listen to audio equipment while you study, but you are not allowed to take or make telephone calls during study time.

Tutors

The residential college on request and in collaboration with the school will organise tutors on some weekdays to help with difficult assignments or to help you improve your knowledge and skills.
