

Study Homework Policy Swanleigh

Prep is held between 6:45 pm to 8:30 pm Monday to Thursday and Sunday 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm.

All students are expected to be ready to commence prep on time.

Year 8 have prep in the library from Monday to Thursday.

Years 9 to 12 have prep in their rooms.

Prep in the Library

- Students are to work quietly and independently
- Students must be spread out around the room and must work during the first session on their own.
- After the first session students may work in pairs or threes if they have permission.

Prep in own rooms

- Students must work independently and quietly
- Headphones can be used for listening to music
- No visiting of other rooms during prep
- Students wishing to work together may do so during the second session after gaining permission from the house parent
- Students who do not settle down to work in their rooms can be sent to senior staff to work.
- During the first session students are to sit at their desks and work.
- During the second session students may lie on their bed and read.

Sunday Prep

- Students are encouraged to prepare for the coming week. Check assignment dates, sporting commitments, revise work, books for Monday.
- Students may lie on their bed and read during this prep session.

Prep Help

During prep a special tutor will move from house to house helping students with their homework. Students are encouraged to make use of this help.
